The Assignor certifies that this instrument falls within category L in the Schedule to the Stamp Duty (Exempt Instruments) Regulations 1987.

Where appropriate in this Deed;

- i. the masculine shall include the feminine and vice versa,
- ii. the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.

This Deed shall be subject to, and shall be construed in accordance with, the laws of England.

NPI means the NPI company that you have contracted with, or have applied to contract with, except for National Provident Institution. On 1 January 2000, its business was transferred to National Provident Life Limited (its successor). In which case, on or after 1 January 2000 National Provident Institution means National Provident Life Limited.

In WITNESS whereof the Assignor and the Assignee have executed this Deed on the date shown at the beginning of this document.

All parties to the Deed should print their name and sign in each box respectively. Each signature must be witnessed by a person who is not a party to the Deed. The witnesses should print their names and sign in the boxes provided.
